FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 12/6/72

[redacted] Clerk, City of Milwaukee License Bureau, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, was interviewed and provided the following information:

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that the Coman Show Lounge had re-applied for their license on May 16, 1972, which was then submitted to the License Committee on May 25, 1972, and finally granted by the committee on June 29, 1972. Application for renewal showed the following officers:

President:

[redacted]
Date of Birth [redacted]b6
b7C

Vice President:

GEORGE DE DIENES

Date of Birth April 18, 1922

Secretary:

[redacted]
Date of Birth [redacted]

Agent:

ROY SOTIRE TAKO

Date of Birth March 14, 1899
4665 North 21st Street

Owner:

Glow Products, Incorporated
502 West Wisconsin Avenue
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Police investigation, which is required when renewing license, was conducted by Patrolman [redacted] [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that it is not a serious violation of their procedures if an owner does not report a change to a name of an establishment; however, the License Bureau would like to know of any name changes, since that affects the application. [redacted] said that she doubted seriously that the License Committee would even be concerned if a violation such as this were brought to their attention. [redacted] finally stated she knew none of the principals personally

[redacted] telephone number [redacted] was interviewed telephonically by Bureau Agents and advised as follows:

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that he works [redacted] as a serviceman for Mitchell Aero, Incorporated, and was employed in that capacity on December 14, 1972. [redacted] stated that he did remember refueling a plane, a plane landing and being tied down on the Mitchell Aero Lot sometime between two and four a.m. on December 14, 1972. He stated that the plane was flown by a white male and he was accompanied by one black woman and two young white females.

b6
b7C

He described the male as having medium length blond hair, 5'7" tall, medium build, late 20's or early 30's and dressed very nice.

He described the black girl as being in her 20's, very light complected, and very good looking.

He stated that the two white females were both young and looked to him like college girls.

[redacted] stated that he was told by [redacted] that the white male and black female had departed Mitchell Field at approximately 10 or 10:30 p.m. on December 13, 1972. He stated that all passengers in the plane appeared to be friends and that he had very little conversation with any of them. He did refuel the plane and remembered that it had been refueled with a Mobil credit card. He was requested by the white male to call a cab, which he did; however, he did not see the four of them depart.

During both visits to the cocktail lounge, Agents spoke with two go go dancers, who identified themselves as [redacted] (Last Name Unknown) (LNU) and [redacted] (LNU). Go go dancers stated that they were not from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, but had been flown to Milwaukee on a private airplane by their boss, who they knew only as [redacted]. They stated that the flight originated in [redacted] where they were employed as go go dancers in a large bar that had a live band. The girls stated that they were not forced to come to Milwaukee but thought they might have a good time; however, both were disappointed and said that the Voom Voom Cocktail lounge made them feel unhappy. They stated that no one had made any attempts to threaten them, but because of the atmosphere, they were afraid. They stated that they would leave if they could, but they had no way of getting back to [redacted] which was their home. They said that they had told [redacted] (LNU), their boss, that they would stay for six days. They said, however, if they could leave, they were going to leave as soon as possible.

On 1/10/73 PAUL COMAN was interviewed in his home by writer and [REDACTED] under the pretext of determining his interest in ownership in the Voom Voom Lounge, 5th and Wisconsin, Milwaukee. COMAN advised that the Voom Voom Lounge is presently owned by Glow Products, Incorporated and [REDACTED] is [REDACTED] of that corporation; however, actually, he, COMAN, owns it and is still semi-active even though the place is being [REDACTED] COMAN further stated that he is going to sell the Voom Voom as soon as tax and license arrangements are made. He stated that [REDACTED] Durand, Michigan, was the one who was going to purchase it.

During the course of the interview [REDACTED] name was mentioned and COMAN voluntarily furnished to the Bureau Agents the information concerning [REDACTED] and the threat against him. COMAN stated it was a few weeks ago in his bar, The Duplex, on 16th and National Avenues, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He said that while he was in the Duplex three men came in and talked to [REDACTED] and told her that [REDACTED] had a contract on COMAN because COMAN owed him money from their previous ownership in Coman's Show Lounge, now known as the Voom Voom. On October 26, 1972, Coman's Show Lounge, 5th and Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, was patronized by Special Agents [REDACTED] and
[REDACTED]

The Special Agents listed above stayed approximately one hour and observed during this time eight go go dancers in the continuous dancing act. No unusual activity was noticed, however, one Negro male, 6'1", 200 pounds, dark hair and dark eyes, talked to the girls, who were both Negro and White, on occasion and would go back and sit down at his table which was located in the front row. At one point one of the dancers came to his table and talked with him for about 10 minutes.

On 12/14/72 during investigation of the Voom Voom Lounge (MI 92-1061) SAs [redacted] and [redacted] acting as customers of the lounge talked with two go-go dancers employed at that establishment. The two white females identified themselves as [redacted] and [redacted] but neither gave their last names. Both dancers stated that they were from [redacted] and had just started to work at the Voom Voom Lounge that day. Both said that even though they had just started they did not like the place but had said when they came they would stay for six days. They stated, however, that if they got the chance to leave they would do so as soon as possible. Both girls further stated that they were flown in on a private airplane by [redacted] LNU after they had agreed with him to come to Milwaukee and dance. The girls said they were not forced to come to Milwaukee but did not think that [redacted] LNU had given them a very good description of the place they would be working -- the Voom Voom Lounge.

[redacted] LNU stated that [redacted] LNU supposedly [redacted] in Milwaukee and also in Michigan.

Both dancers said that they were not approached to engage in prostitution; however, they felt that some of the other dancers were prostitutes. [redacted] stated that they were flown in by [redacted] LNU from [redacted] directly to Milwaukee about 4:00 AM on 4/13/72 and had stayed one night at the Marc Plaza Hotel.

At approximately 2:30 AM 4/15/72, the dancers were observed entering the Downtown Motor Inn by Bureau Agents. Both girls were approached by Agents as they started to enter room 428. After Agents had identified themselves both girls refused to give additional information stating that they had told us everything they knew while we talked to them in the Voom Voom Lounge. Description of the girls is set forth in 92-1061-10. The dancers re-emphasized that they wanted to leave and would do so as soon as possible since they felt very "uncomfortable".

On 12/15/72 at approximately 2:30 PM [redacted] Downtown Motor Inn, informed the writer that the girls had checked out and that their room contained no luggage. The registration form from the previous night showed that room 428 was registered to [redacted] or [redacted]

b6
b7C

The room had been paid for in advance for one night. Additional investigation at the Voom Voom and through known sources failed to disclose any additional information about or the whereabouts of [redacted] or [redacted] LNU.

On 12/15/72 [redacted] of Mitchell Aero, Incorporated, a private airplane refueling company at General Mitchell Field was questioned concerning the possibility of a small aircraft landing there early in the morning several nights before. [redacted] then telephoned [redacted] for the company and he stated that he did indeed remember the aircraft and that it was a Cessna number [redacted]. [redacted] then provided a Mobil credit card receipt believed to be signed by [redacted] on 12/14/72. The Mobil credit card number is 880547114240575, invoice number 105038, Screen News Distributing, Incorporated, 8250 East Lansing Road, Durand, Michigan 48429.

b7C

[redacted] was then interviewed and stated he remembered tying down the aircraft some time between 2:00 AM and 4:00 AM on 12/14/72. He stated that the plane was flown by a white male in his late 20s or early 30s with medium length blond hair who was tall and dressed very nice. [redacted] further stated that the pilot was accompanied by a young light skinned Negro female and two young white females. He stated he did not speak much to the pilot and the pilot requested [redacted] to get a taxi for them. [redacted] further stated that all four appeared to be friendly.

MI 92-New

A review of the U.S. Civil Aircraft Register, 7/72, indicated that aircraft [ ] is registered to Pursue Limited Corporation, 1822 Briar Wood Road, Atlanta, Georgia, for a 1968 Model Cessna 182, single engine. b6 b7C

[ ] LNU, [ ] for Mitchell Aero reviewed her receipts for Mobil credit card 88054714A240575 and cash copies of receipts dated 9/30, 10/17, 10/26, 11/17, 11/26, 12/13 and 12/14/72 all signed by [ ] and used to purchase gasoline at Mitchell Aero for aircraft [ ]. b6 b7C

Writer requested that [ ] and [ ] LNU, [ ] be on the lookout for the aircraft and to notify him the next time it comes in. b6 b7C

On 1/11/73 writer was contacted by [ ] LNU stating that aircraft [ ] had tied down on 1/2/73 and had been there since but was presently getting ready to leave and that the pilot was at Mitchell Aero. PAUL COMAN was interviewed at his home, 7438 North 90th Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and provided the following information:

COMAN stated that [redacted] Glow Products, Incorporated, which owns the Voom Voom Lounge, 5th and Wisconsin Avenue, but that he, COMAN, actually ran it along with the Duplex Lounge, 16th and National Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

b7C

COMAN stated that [redacted] was a [redacted] when the Voom Voom was in the name of the Milwaukee Spa, Incorporated. He stated that was a few years ago. COMAN said [redacted] the Voom Voom and is working for a corporation out of state and they want to buy the lounge. COMAN said that [redacted] Durand, Michigan, telephone [redacted] (Durand) has actually put money down and will buy the Voom Voom as soon as the license and taxes are straightened out.

b6
b7C

When the Voom Voom was owned by the Milwaukee Spa, [redacted] wanted to buy COMAN out and said he would give him $6,000 in cash and then subsequently give him an additional $12,000 plus another $12,000 to cover the security deposit. The Voom Voom at that time was called Original Joe's. COMAN stated that [redacted] had actually paid him $3,000 and was supposed to pay the balance but never did, even though COMAN said he gave him plenty of time to pay. During the course of this transaction Original Joe's was closed due to [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] COMAN stated that he repeatedly tried to settle the partnership with [redacted] and even offered to run it on a fifty fifty basis until [redacted] COMAN said that during the course of this time the establishment was closed for three months, thereby COMAN received no income but had paid the rent, amounting to $6,000 over a three month period.

COMAN stated that since he could get no satisfaction from [ ] he reopened the lounge under the name Coman's Show Lounge. He stated that during this period of time, several people managed the lounge, [ ]

b6
b7C

[ ] COMAN said that the name of the lounge was changed to the Voom Voom [ ]. It was at this time, October, 1972, that COMAN opened the Duplex Lounge, previously called the Southside Village Tavern.

COMAN stated that he has heard little from [ ] since having awaited the results of a supreme court decision on his case, but as far as he knows, [ ] lives in Peoria, Illinois where he owns a book store.

b7C

COMAN said a few weeks ago [ ] sent three men over to the Duplex Lounge where they told [ ] that [ ] had put a price on COMAN's head. COMAN stated he did not know the men, all of whom were white males, one approximately 5'6", one 5'7" or 8" and the other 6' with a bad arm. He said that when the three men came in one stayed at the bar and two confronted him directly and told him [ ] is mad and he has a contract on you. COMAN stated that he got scared and went out the back door to the bar next door and called the police.

b6

COMAN further stated the police came within a few minutes and talked to him and then the three men separated. He has not heard anything from the police since. COMAN stated that in view of the partnership and his attempts to assist [ ] in maintaining his interest in the partnership, he feels he does not owe [ ] anything. As far as COMAN is concerned, he said his Lawyer, RICHARD WIEL, 6th and Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, telephone 276-2980 has all the papers dissolving the old partnership and establishing the new corporation. COMAN stated he would testify if necessary against [ ] and/or the three men who entered the Duplex Lounge.

COMAN stated that approximately ten days ago, [redacted] [redacted] had seen [redacted] and [redacted] at the restaurant next to the Clock Bar on Fifth Street and had told them to leave COMAN alone. Apparently they said to [redacted] that they were only joking but that they were mad that COMAN had called the police when they threatened him before.

COMAN stated further that he still owns the Voom Voom Lounge at Fifth and Wisconsin, but expects to have it sold in June 1973. He stated that the new owners will be out of state, but they will get around the law by forming a Wisconsin corporation and buying the bar through the corporation name.

COMAN stated that he had never hired DAVID CARTEGINA as a bodyguard. He further stated that he recalled a woman seated beside him when the threat was made; however, he said

DETAILS:

By communication dated July 25, 1974, the Cincinnati Office furnished the following:

[REDACTED]

b6
b7C

MI 92-1061

b6
b7C

On August 21, 1974, [redacted] Special Assignment Squad, Milwaukee Police Department, advised that recent raids by their department were conducted in the downtown area of Milwaukee which resulted in the arrest of numerous prostitutes. These prostitutes had primarily been soliciting customers from the taverns and lounges in that area. [redacted] advised that some of the arrested persons had been employees of the Voom Voom Lounge although several of the customers in that lounge had been solicited. [redacted] stated that they had no current knowledge that employees of the Voom Voom Lounge were actually soliciting prostitution.

b6
b7C

MI 92-1061

He further mentioned that their officers are active in this area of downtown Milwaukee and would report any possible criminal activity at the lounge.

On September 19, 1974, ROY S. TAKO, 4665 North 21st Street, Milwaukee, telephone 873-7131, advised that he owned the Voom Voom Lounge, 502 West Wisconsin, from 1961 to 1968. In 1968 he sold it to PAUL COMAN but he is aware that COMAN sold the club in 1973 to an individual from Ohio or Michigan, name unknown. TAKO advised that he has been employed as the agent for the Voom Voom since 1968 and is paid $75 a week. He continues to obtain the license for the lounge in his name as an agent for Glow Products, Incorporated, which is the company name that purchased the lounge from COMAN. TAKO stated that the

[redacted] who is originally from either Ohio or Kansas City. [redacted]

[redacted] TAKO mentioned that he is paid weekly by check drawn on the pay roll account of the Voom Voom Lounge.

Several spot checks were conducted at captioned lounge during September and October, 1974, which disclosed that business was bad and the lounge had very few customers even during normal busy periods on Fridays and weekends. No unusual activity was noted outside the premises and an unknown white male was usually standing at the entrance as a doorman attempting to attract customers.
